CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT TO SHAREHOLDERS OF DATABANK MFUND PLC

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the Board of Directors and Management, I am happy to welcome you to the 19th Annual General Meeting of Databank MFund PLC. I wish to extend my gratitude to all of you for your unrelenting support for the Fund.

I will like to share with you an update on the global and domestic economies, some market developments and their impact on MFund, the performance of your Fund in 2022 and our expectations for 2023.

Global economic performance

The global economy continued to face shocks, resulting in growth contracting to 3.4% in 2022 from 6.2% in the previous year. The slowdown in growth stemmed from heightened inflation across most economies, the impact of the Russia-Ukraine war and the re-emergence of COVID-19 in China. According to the International Monetary Fund (IMF), global inflation averaged 8.8% in 2022. This was mainly due to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and the Russia-Ukraine war on commodity prices, which affected both supply and demand. In response, many major economies implemented tight monetary policies to cool off the overheating economies. The result was higher borrowing costs, a dampening of risk appetite, and the devaluation of many local currencies in emerging markets. Sub-Saharan Africa economies also experienced slower growth of 3.9% in 2022 compared with 4.7% in 2021.

Domestic economic performance

Ghana's economy witnessed numerous challenges in 2022 including record high inflation, currency volatility and elevated debt levels resulting in a 3.1% growth rate in 2022, compared with a 5.1% growth rate in 2021. Ghana's debt to GDP increased to 94.3% as of November 2022, up from 74.7% in November 2021. However, it subsequently declined to 71.2% by December 2022 on account of an improvement in the cedi-dollar exchange rate. The high debt levels led to the downgrading of Ghana's sovereign credit rating by several credit rating agencies during the year. The country's Gross International Reserves rapidly declined to 2.7 months of import cover in December 2022 from 4.3 months in December 2021. Ghana's fiscal deficit also ended the year at 9.9%, well above the Government's revised target of 6.7%. Additionally, deficits recorded by the capital and financial account and current account as a result of curtailed foreign investments and portfolio reversals resulted in a USD 3.6 billion balance of payment deficit by year-end.

With access to the international capital markets firmly closed, the country sought support from the IMF for a USD 3 billion bailout programme. As part of the conditions to secure the IMF loan, a debt sustainability analysis was undertaken by the Government, which led to the announcement of a Domestic Debt Exchange Program (DDEP) in December 2022. The DDEP was concluded on February 21, 2023, and eligible bondholders who participated in the DDEP received various new bonds in lieu of the old bonds.

Exchange rate developments

The Cedi experienced a free fall against the major trading currencies, depreciating by 30.0% against the US Dollar in 2022. Ghana's restricted access to the international capital markets in 2022, as a result of rising debt levels and debt servicing concerns, exacerbated pressure on the local currency. Additionally, imported inflation emanating from the high commodity prices – mainly a consequence of the Russian-Ukraine war – also caused the local currency to further weaken against the US Dollar. Again, the Cedi fared poorly against the Euro and the Pound, depreciating by 25.3% and 21.2%, respectively.

Consumer inflation

Pricing pressures remained elevated for most of 2022 driven by high food and fuel prices. The inflation rate peaked in December 2022 at 54.1% from 12.6% recorded in December 2021. Higher global commodity prices influenced the elevated price pressures locally in addition to the depreciating local currency. The food and non-alcoholic beverages group recorded the steepest inflation rate of 59.7% in December 2022 compared to 49.9% recorded by the non-food group.

Market developments and their impact on MFund

On October 20, 2022, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) issued a directive for market operators to use the 'Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income' (mark-to-market) valuation method to value clients' investment securities to ensure that these securities reflect their current market values. This was necessitated by the high interest rate environment that impacted bond prices negatively. To minimize the impact on the Fund on account of the mark-to-market policy, a second tier of MFund (MFund II) was introduced in November 2022. MFund II is a money market investment Fund targeted at clients looking for investments to meet their short-term liquidity needs. MFund II achieves this objective by investing in money market securities, while MFund I continues to invest in fixed-income securities.

Interest rate

Interest rates increased significantly in 2022, ending the year at 35.4% for the 91-day

Treasury Bill, 35.9% for the 182-day Bill and 36.1% for the 364-day Bill. The rise in interest rates was driven by the Central Bank's hawkish monetary policy stance to combat rising inflation leading to a 12.0% hike in the Monetary Policy Rate in 2022, ending the year at 27.0%.

MFund performance

MFund I recorded a return of 9.7% in 2022, while MFund II, set up in November 2022, returned 0.62%. The Fund's combined Assets under Management declined by 31.2% to GHC 966.1 million, mainly driven by large institutional outflows. The Fund's clientele base, however, increased by 13.6% to end the year at 277,374 shareholders.

Outlook for 2023

According to the IMF, global economic growth is expected to slow down to 2.8% in 2023, reflecting the impact of tight monetary policy to combat inflation and the impact of the Russia-Ukraine war on growth expectations. Sub-Saharan Africa is also expected to experience modest growth due to the above-mentioned economic challenges.

Ghana's economic growth is expected to continue moderating, with the IMF forecasting a growth rate of 1.6% for 2023. It is expected that monetary policy will remain hawkish to anchor the disinflationary trend, posing a headwind to growth expectations.

The country received the first tranche of USD 600 million out of the USD 3 billion IMF loan in May 2023. This is expected to boost the country's reserves to support its balance of payment account. Thus, the local currency is expected to gain some stability against the US Dollar. However, the Cedi may face some pressure on account of zero forex interventions from the central bank based on the agreement with the IMF.

Short-term interest rates are expected to remain high due to the Ghanaian Government's reliance on domestic funding (in the light of the zero-financing support IMF directive to the Bank of Ghana), coupled with investors pricing in extra risk on the back of the impending second round of debt restructuring. While trading activity in medium-to-long-term bonds may be constrained, there remain opportunities within the money market which your Fund will explore to improve its return prospects. This is in line with the strategy to dilute the Fund's exposure to Government of Ghana securities.

Following the launch of the DDEP, MFund I tendered in its old Government of Ghana Securities for the new securities to enhance the liquidity position of the Fund. Although MFund I is experiencing low liquidity, the Fund Manager is working around the clock to honor all its outstanding obligations. The Fund is still poised to continue delivering value to clients and it is our hope that shareholders will remain steadfast in their support of the Fund during these difficult times.

Closing remarks

Dear Shareholders, though the current economic environment has been quite challenging, the Fund Manager and Board of Directors are assured of the Fund's ability to overcome these challenges and emerge stronger and in a better position to meet your expectations.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I thank the Almighty God for His guidance so far. To the Management and Staff of Databank, I say well done for your hard work and dedication despite all the challenges. Lastly, to our cherished Shareholders, I thank you for your continued support, loyalty and faith in MFund.

Thank you and may God bless us all.

The Directors are of the opinion that, based on the information and explanations given by Management, the system of internal control provides reasonable assurance that the financial records may be relied on for the preparation of the Annual Financial Statements. However, any system of internal financial control can provide only reasonable, and not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF DATABANK MFUND PLC

Opinion

We have audited the Financial Statements of Databank MFUND PLC ("the Fund"), which comprise the Statement of Financial Position at December 31, 2022, and the Statements of Comprehensive Income, Changes in Equity and Cash Flows for the year then ended, and the notes to the Financial Statements which include a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory notes, as set out on pages 19 to 38.

In our opinion, the accompanying Financial Statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Fund at December 31, 2022, and of its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) and in the manner required by the Companies Act, 2019 (Act 992) and the Securities Industry Act, 2016 (Act 929).

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Fund in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including International Independence Standards) (IESBA Code), together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Financial Statements in Ghana and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the IESBA Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Financial Statements of the current year. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Impairment on investment securities GHC 157,138,384

Refer to Note 7a of the Financial Statements.

The Key Audit Matter

Investments in financial instruments amounted to GHC 1.103 billion consisting of government securities of GHC 1.099 million and other securities of GHC 4 million at December 31, 2022, which represent 98% of the total amount of the Fund's total assets. The Fund recognised an impairment loss of GHC 157.14 million on these balances as of December 31, 2022. The impairment on government securities amounted to GHC 157,011,587 and the one on the other securities amounted to GHC 126,797.

Government Securities

The government securities have become credit-impaired due to adverse macroeconomic conditions and unsustainable debt levels of the country. These conditions prompted the rollout of the Ghana Domestic Debt Exchange Programme (GDDEP) by the government of Ghana to achieve debt sustainability.

The impairment testing of government securities is considered to be a key audit matter due to the complexities involved in determining the estimated future cash flows arising from these instruments.

- The future cash flows of the eligible bonds to be issued under the GDDEP is based on the estimated fair value of the new bonds issued on February 21, 2023. The fair value is based on the cash flows as outlined in the exchange memorandum discounted using an estimated yield to maturity at February 21, 2023.
- The future cash flows of government securities not included in the GDDEP is based on the assumption of estimated cash short falls to be experienced.

The quality of disclosures required by IFRS 9 are complex and need to provide insights to the key judgments and material inputs to the IFRS 9 ECL results.

Due to the significance of the investment in government securities to the financial position of the Fund and significant measurement uncertainty involved in the impairment of qualifying investments, this was considered a key audit matter in our audit.

Other Securities

The measurement of impairment under IFRS 9 is deemed a key audit matter as the determination of assumptions for the measurement of impairment requires management to apply significant judgments about future events.

The key areas where we identified significant levels of management judgement and therefore increased levels of audit focus in the implementation of IFRS 9 is the timing and measurement of expected credit losses (ECL) in determining the allocation of assets to stage 1, 2, or 3 brackets.

Given the high degree of estimation uncertainty and significance of the balance, we considered impairment allowances on other securities to be a key audit matter.

How the matter was addressed in our audit

Based on our risk assessment, we have examined the impairment of government securities based on the description of the key audit matter.

In addressing the key audit matter the following procedures were performed. We:

Government Securities

- Assessed the completeness and accuracy of key data inputs used in the ECL calculation through testing relevant data.
- Performed an overall assessment of the ECL provision levels by stage to determine if they were reasonable considering the Fund's portfolio, risk profile, credit risk management practices and management assumptions used in determining management overlay.
- Remained alert to the most recent government communication on the GDDEP, the fund's communication as to whether it will participate in the programme and meeting minutes of board to assess whether the fund has applied the right terms of the valuation and impairment of these instruments.

- Assessed the appropriateness of staging for eligible investments to be exchanged under the GDDEP (qualifying investments) and other sovereign-related exposures.
- Involved our valuation specialist in assessing the appropriateness of the yield-to-maturities applied in determining the fair value of the new bonds under the GDDEP.
- Assessed the appropriateness of the Fund's methodology for determining the ECL.
- Assessed whether the disclosures of the key judgements and assumptions made were appropriate in terms of IFRS 9.

Other Securities

- Assessed the completeness and accuracy of key data inputs used in the ECL calculation through testing relevant data.
- Performed an overall assessment of the ECL provision levels by stage to determine if they were reasonable considering the Fund's portfolio, risk profile, credit risk management practices and management assumptions used in determining management overlay.
- Assessed the appropriateness of the Fund's methodology for determining the ECL.

- Assessed whether the disclosures of the key judgements and assumptions made were appropriate in terms of IFRS 9.

Our opinion on the Financial Statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Directors for the Financial Statements

The Director(s) are responsible for the preparation of Financial Statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and in the manner required by the Companies Act, 2019 (Act 992) and the Securities Industry Act, 2016 (Act 929), and for such internal control as the Directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of Financial Statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Financial Statements, the Directors are responsible for assessing the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Directors either intend to liquidate the Fund or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Directors are responsible for overseeing the Fund's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an Auditor's Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Financial Statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by Director(s).
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our Auditor's Report to the related disclosures in the Financial Statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our Auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the Director(s) regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Report on other legal and regulatory requirements

Compliance with the requirements of Section 137 of the Companies Act, 2019 (Act 992)

We have obtained all the information and explanations which, to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit.

In our opinion, proper books of account have been kept, so far as appears from our examination of those books. The Statements of Financial Position and Comprehensive Income are in agreement with the accounting records and returns.

We are independent of the Fund under audit pursuant to Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2019 (Act 992).

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent Auditor's Report is Frederick Nyan Dennis (ICAG/P/1426).

14. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

The Fund's objective in managing risk is the creation and protection of shareholder value. Risk is inherent in the Fund's activities, but it is managed through a process of ongoing identification, measurement, management and monitoring, subject to risk limits and other controls. The process of risk management is critical to the Fund's continuing profitability. The Fund is exposed to market risk (which includes interest rate risk and price risk), credit risk and liquidity risk arising from the financial instruments it holds.

14.1 Risk Management Structure

The Fund Manager is responsible for identifying and controlling risks. The Board of Directors supervises the Fund Manager and is ultimately responsible for the overall risk management of the Fund.

14.2 Risk Measurement and Reporting System

The risks of the Fund are measured using a method that reflects both the expected loss likely to arise in normal circumstances and unexpected losses that are an estimate of the ultimate actual loss.

Limits reflect the business strategy including the risk that the Fund is willing to accept and the market environment of the Fund. In addition, the Fund monitors and measures the overall risk in relation to the aggregate risk exposure across all risk types and activities.

14.6 Ghana Domestic Debt Exchange Programme

Ghana is facing a very challenging economic situation amid an increasingly difficult global economic environment. These adverse developments have exposed Ghana to a surge in inflation, a significant exchange rate depreciation and increased stress on the financing of the government's budget. The latest debt sustainability analysis demonstrated that Ghana is faced with a significant financing gap over the coming years and that the country's public debt is unsustainable. The country was downgraded by ratings agencies several times in 2022. During the last quarter of 2022, negotiations took place between the Government of Ghana and the International Monetary Fund (IMF) to establish a support programme. According to the IMF's press release No. 22/427, a staff level agreement was reached in mid-December of 2022. However, the execution of this support programme is contingent on the implementation of a debt restructuring plan, which is intended to restore Ghana's macroeconomic stability. In response, the Government of Ghana on December 5, 2022 launched the Ghana Domestic Debt Exchange Programme (GDDEP).

The GDDEP is an arrangement through which registered bondholders in Ghana exchanged their eligible domestic bonds (all locally issued bonds and notes of the Government and E.S.L.A. PLC and Daakye Trust PLC bonds excluding Treasury bills (T-bills)) for new benchmark bonds with the same aggregate principal amount (plus applicable capitalized accrued and unpaid interest).

The terms of the exchange are set out in the GDDEP memorandum issued on December 5, 2023 which was updated several times with changes to the number of bonds, maturity, and coupon rates of the new “replacement” bonds. The final exchange memorandum was issued on February 3, 2023 with an offer expiration date set to February 7, 2023 and shifted to February 10, 2023 to cater for technical glitches and the Settlement Date to February 14, 2023 and shifted to February 21, 2023.

Only Eligible Bonds listed under “Eligible Bonds” in the Exchange Memorandum were eligible for exchange for New Bonds in the Invitation to Exchange. This includes bonds issued by the Republic of Ghana and bonds issued by E.S.L.A. PLC (‘ESLA’) and Daakye Trust PLC (‘Daakye’), which are both special purpose entities set up by the government of Ghana. Eligible Holders were split into three different categories depending on whether they are Collective Investment Schemes (CIS) Holders or Individual Holders below the age of 59 years eligible as of January 31, 2023 (Category A), Individual Holders aged 59 years or older as of January 31, 2023 (Category B) or other Eligible Holders (General Category). MFund falls within Category A).

In exchange for Eligible bonds maturing in 2023, Category A Holders received two (2) New General Bonds, maturing in 2027 and in 2028. The amount eligible for the exchange was the principal amount of the eligible bonds outstanding after January 31, 2023 and accrued interest up to the Settlement Date which was due for payment after January 31, 2023. Interest on the New Bonds will be paid in cash (“Cash Interest”). The coupon rates on the two New General Bonds is 10%.

Coupon rates for all eligible bonds were substantially changed, and the maturity of the new bonds (replacing the respective old bonds) were significantly extended compared to the old bonds.

Bonds eligible for exchange

MFund participated in the exchange programme on February 14, 2023 and received the new bonds on February 21, 2023. MFund tendered an offer for exchange for GHC 1.105 billion worth of eligible bonds and received the equivalent amount of two new bonds on the settlement date.

The table below details the bonds held by MFund which were eligible for the exchange programme. There were no maturities up to the date of exchange.

BOND TYPE	MATURITY BUCKET	VALUE OF BONDS EXCHANGED AT FEB 21, 2023 GHC	GROSS CARRYING AMOUNT AT DEC 31, 2022 GHC
GOG Bond	2023	19,480,510.06	18,408,866.56
GOG Bond	Post 2023	1,081,223,808.83	1,022,260,350.44

		1,105,161,794.82	1,044,715,122.00

The table below details the bonds held by MFund which were eligible for the exchange programme based on the classification at which they are held in these Financial Statements. This table includes the carrying amounts held as at December 31, 2022, the impairment losses arising from the exchange programme (refer to Note 7) recognised for the year ended December 31, 2022.

Bond	Value of Bonds Exchanged at Feb 21, 2023 GHC	Gross Carrying Amount at Dec 31, 2022 GHC	Impairment Allowance at Dec 31, 2022 GHC	Carrying Amount at Dec 31, 2022 GHC	Impairment Charge as at Dec 31, 2022 GHC
Amortised Cost	1,105,161,794.82	1,044,715,122	(157,011,587)	887,703,535	(157,011,587)

Impairment of eligible bonds measured at amortised cost and FVOCI

As at December 31, 2022, it is evident that Ghana is facing financial difficulties, with its sovereign debt trading at significant discounts. The announcement of the GDDEP and the downgrade of the country's rating to 'selective default' (Standard & Poors) by the rating agencies in 2022 further evidences the country's financial challenges. In this regard, exposures to Government of Ghana (including T-Bills, Cocoa bills, Local USD Bonds and Eurobonds), ESLA and Daakye are considered credit-impaired at the reporting date and was downgraded from stage 1 to stage 3.

For bonds eligible for exchange and measured at amortised cost and FVOCI, impairment is assessed based on the fair value of the new bonds issued under the debt exchange programme at the settlement date discounted to the reporting date using the effective interest rate of the eligible bonds (see accounting policy under Note 3).

The fair value of the new bonds is estimated using discounted cash flow techniques, applying rates from the yield curve that was constructed from market information and data available at the date of measurement to discount the expected cash flows from the new bonds as outlined in the exchange memorandum.

The data considered in the construction of the yield curve includes traded prices, indicative broker quotes and evaluated prices from pricing services over the period from December 30, 2022 to March 3, 2023. The weighted-average yield-to-maturity applied in discounting the cashflows of the new bonds to be issued under the exchange programme on February 21, 2023 is 18% resulting in a fair value of GHC 914 million for bonds held at amortised cost. The weighted average original effective interest rate of the eligible bonds used to discount the fair value from February 21, 2023 to December 31, 2022 is 19.8%.

The ECL on the eligible bonds are sensitive to judgements and assumptions made regarding the choice of yield-to-maturity rate applied in discounting the cashflows of the new bonds to be issued under the exchange programme. Management performs a sensitivity analysis on the ECL recognised on these assets. A 100bp parallel rise in the yield curve at the measurement date, holding other assumptions constant, would have increased the loss allowance on the eligible bonds by GHC 27 million. A 100bp fall in the yield curve would have decrease the loss allowance on the eligible bonds by GHC 28 million.

Subsequent events

The exchange will be considered a substantial modification of the eligible bonds requiring derecognition at the settlement date of these assets for the following reasons:

- Each individual bond eligible and participating in the exchange programme will be replaced by a uniform series of identical new bonds with the same relative proportion in terms of maturities and in sum the same aggregate amount of the respective old bond.
- Coupon rates for all eligible bonds will be substantially changed; and
- The maturity of the new bonds (replacing the respective old bonds) will be significantly extended compared to the old bonds

Subsequent to the yearend but before the Financial Statements were authorised for issue, MFund derecognised the existing bonds eligible for exchange and recognised the new bonds at fair value in its 2023 financial period. The Fund is yet to assess impact of the derecognition with respect to additional/ a reversal of impairment losses on bonds classified at amortised cost.

Other Government Exposures

MFund has no other government exposures such as treasury bills, USD denominated local notes, cocoa bills and Eurobonds.

The Government in a public statement (through an FAQ related to the GDDEP) intends to exchange domestic non-marketable debt and Cocoa bills, under comparable terms at a later stage. The Government also intends to exchange USD denominated local notes at a later stage. External debt restructuring parameters will be renegotiated in due course.

On December 19, 2022, the Ministry of Finance suspended debt service on external debt until renegotiations take place. External debts include Euro Bonds and other external foreign currency denominated debts.

On January 23, 2023, MFund of Ghana unilaterally rolled over cocoa bills that were due to mature.

These events, in addition to the announcement of the GDDEP and the downgrade of the country, provide evidence that other government exposures are credit-impaired.

14.6.1 Amounts arising from ECL

Impairment of cash and cash equivalents, and investment in fixed deposits have been measured on a 12-month expected credit loss basis and reflects the maturities of the exposures. The Fund considers that these exposures have low credit risk because they are held with reputable regulated banks.

The Fund monitors changes in credit risk on these exposures and on government securities by tracking published external credit ratings of the Government of Ghana. To determine whether published ratings remain up to date and to assess whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk at the reporting date that has not been reflected in the published ratings, the Fund supplements it by reviewing changes in bond yields, where available together with available press and regulatory information about counterparties.

12-month and lifetime probabilities of default are based on historical data supplied by rating agencies for each credit rating. Loss given default parameters generally reflect an assumed recovery rate of 60%. However, if the asset were credit-impaired, then the estimate of loss would base on a specific assessment of expected cash shortfalls and on the original effective interest rate.

Impairment loss recognised for financial assets at the end of the year was GHC 157,138,384 (2021: GHC 23,171,505).

14.7 Fair Value of Financial Instruments

25 years of inspiring change: Databank Foundation marks its silver jubilee

In 2022, the Databank Foundation celebrated twenty-five years of giving back by giving back even more! The events that marked this special milestone included programs in education and mental health for our young future leaders.

Education

The Foundation embarked on a special Read Aid outreach program (reading and literacy improvement) dubbed “Read Along”, in partnership with the Ghana Library Authority. Reading sessions were held in Wa, Koforidua, Takoradi, and Damang. In all, we visited about 20 schools, reached over 800 children, and donated 800 books. The children from the Adabraka Cluster of Schools in Accra had an extra special reading session with professionals from the military, police officers, doctors, nurses, and lawyers.

Leadership

The Foundation's strong focus on developing youth leadership inspired three conferences in Kumasi, Tamale, and Accra targeted at young people from high school through university. The Foundation hosted over 1,400 young people at the Ready, Set, Innovate conferences. Participants were exposed to new forms of technology and were charged to face challenges with an innovative mindset. The students left, not only with new perspectives, but also hands-on experiences such as how to design flying drones and create objects using 3D printers.

Mental Health

Mental Health is at the core of Databank Foundation's mission. For the past 25 years, the Foundation has introduced various interventions to improve care for abandoned youth living with mental health challenges. A key highlight of the anniversary was hosting staff and patients of Accra Psychiatric Hospital Children's Ward and selected organizations that support young persons living with mental disabilities for a fun gathering to mark the 2022 World Mental Health Day. The Foundation also hosted the Mental Health Knowledge Forum for stakeholders to build collaborative bridges and share best practices to help improve care for patients.

The Databank Foundation is honoured to be able to support the communities that we care about in a meaningful way and we look forward to 25 more years of touching lives. Special appreciation to all Databank Group Board Members, staff of Databank, and all stakeholders for your continued contribution and support.
