Who should invest in this Fund

Individuals who want to invest for retirement or are looking for a diversified investment.

Why invest today

Retirement is not top-of-mind for many Ghanaians. Many people are weighed down by their current expenditures, so thinking about planning toward retirement is a real "pain." Many people rely on their savings or their children to take care of them during retirement. Upon retirement, these individuals could see an even higher increase in living expenses, when compared with their working years, if they have not properly planned ahead.

Benefits

- Balanced approach to investing
- Core fund for portfolio diversification
- Proven investment expertise

Remember...

BFund gives you the best of both worlds for your investments. With BFund, you get the stability and security of a money market investment plus the potential for higher returns that come with equity investments.

Who should invest in this Fund

Individuals who want to set aside money to fund educational needs.

Why invest today

Every parent wants their child to have the best education possible. We recognize that quality education is key to a great future. However, putting money aside for education is often crowded out by more immediate, day-to-day expenses. Many parents also underestimate the cost of quality education, and are therefore not adequately investing towards it. If proper plans are not made, the dream of quality education may remain only that – a dream. We believe quality education can be achievable.

Benefits

- Peace of mind knowing your education needs are being taken care of
- Protection of your investment in the case of death or permanent disability
- Proven investment expertise

Remember...

EdIfund's innovative two-tier structure offers you the complete package when investing for education: A short-term investment component (Tier 1) for current and recurring educational needs, a long-term investment component (Tier 2) for future educational needs, and a built-in Life and Total Permanent Disability insurance cover to protect your investment in the event of tragedy.
