CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT TO SHAREHOLDERS OF DATABANK EDUCATIONAL INVESTMENT FUND LIMITED

Distinguished Shareholders,

I am delighted to welcome you all to the 3rd Annual General Meeting (AGM) of Ghana's premier two-tiered educational mutual fund, Databank Educational Investment Fund (EdiFund). On behalf of the board of directors and staff of Databank, I would like to express my profound gratitude to you for your continued trust and patronage of the Fund as an avenue for your investment. In this report, I would like to share with you an overview of the global and Ghanaian economies. I will follow up with the performance of the Fund and conclude with the outlook for the 2018 financial year.

Global economic review

The global economy experienced broad-based growth in 2017. According to the IMF World Economic Outlook, global economic growth for the year-ended 2017 was about 3.6%, a 20% increase on the 3.0% growth achieved in 2016.

All three global economic blocs: Advanced Economies, Emerging Markets and Developing Economies recorded positive GDP growth rates.

Growth in Emerging Markets and Developing Economies was driven by China's return to a robust growth rate of about 6.5%, while the growth in Advanced Economies was supported by expanding global trade.

Global trade grew strongly in 2017, fueled by a pick up in investments, particularly among advanced economies, and increased manufacturing output in Asia.

This positive performance is expected to be maintained in 2018 with moderate gains across board.

Domestic economic conditions

The Ghanaian economy recovered in 2017 with GDP growth estimated at 6.3%, significantly outperforming the global economy. The growth was spurred on by a substantial recovery in oil and gas production, following a 16.5% contraction in hydrocarbon production in 2016.

The economy saw inflation trending downward throughout the year to end at 11.80%. This was generally due to lower cost pressures and subdued inflation expectations by both financial market and real sector investors.

The Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) of the Bank of Ghana cumulatively lowered the Monetary Policy Rate ("MPR") by 550 basis points to 20% in 2017. The MPC reduced the MPR on the back of a general strengthening of the macro economy and easing domestic price pressures. In line with the declining MPR, money market interest rates also declined broadly.

The Government of Ghana Treasury Bill rates steadily declined in 2017. The 91-day treasury rates declined from 16.8% at the beginning of the year to 13.2% at the end of the year. This was due to the government's policy to re-profile public debt to the medium and longer-end instruments. Similarly, the rate on the 182-day treasury bill declined to 14.1% from 18.5%, while the rate for the 1-year note also fell to 15.0% from 21.5% in December 2016.

The country has been an attractive investment destination as a result of the relative political stability over the last two decades and improved macroeconomic conditions.

Fund performance

EdiFund Tier 1, which seeks to help investors cater for current and recurring educational needs (e.g., termly school fees), achieved a stellar performance considering the performance of its benchmark, the 1-Year Government of Ghana note. Tier 1 ended 2017 at a price of GHC 0.1804 per share, representing a return of 19.30%, while the 91-day treasury bill recorded an average annual yield of 13.35%.

EdiFund Tier 2, which is geared towards helping investors meet their longer-term educational needs (e.g., university education), outperformed its benchmark, 85:15 blend of the 1-Year Government of Ghana note and the Ghana Stock Exchange Composite Index. The Fund ended the year at a price of GHC 0.1753 per share and returned 20.48% while the 1 Year Government of Ghana note ended the year at 14.12%. The number of shareholders of the Fund increased from 9,506 to 16,195 as at December 31, 2017.

Outlook for 2018

The Ghanaian economy began the year 2018 on a sound note, underlined by low inflationary pressures, currency stability and a growing GDP. We expect the equities market to put in a stellar performance for 2018. The Fund is well-positioned to benefit from the eminent bullish performance of the equities market. We believe that our consistent approach of investing in quality stocks will churn out great returns in 2018 and beyond.

We thank you for investing with EdiFund and look forward to continuing to serve your investment needs in the years ahead.

about investing towards your child's education

MYTH: I will start investing later; I have enough time on my hands

REALITY: If you don't start investing as early as possible, you will need to contribute larger sums of money within a shorter time frame to fully cover your child's educational costs. Invest early, so you can contribute less and earn more in interest.

MYTH: I don't have enough money to start investing towards education

REALITY: Investing isn't only for wealthy people. Anyone can invest. Most investment funds have small minimum requirements. You can invest from large amounts to as little as spare change. Just be consistent and watch your money grow.

MYTH: I can take a loan to cover my child's educational expenses

REALITY: Going in for loans may result in excess debt and may force you to forgo other necessities in order to pay interest on these loans. Invest instead, so you can have a debt-free solution to cover educational expenses.

Why investing consistently towards your child's education matters

As students, parents and people who have dreams and aspirations to fulfill, one of our main priorities is to give ourselves and our children, the best education possible. But with quality education comes skyrocketing fees, sometimes more than we can handle. With many other important expenses to cover, financing education can be a difficult and stressful task. In order to stay on top of your finances and secure quality education with confidence, you will need to invest both your time and resources. Databank Educational Investment Fund, with its unique facets, is the premier choice for those who wish to pursue further education or see their child/ward through school.

The table below shows the total tuition cost of enrollment in 3 private and 3 public universities in Ghana, for an undergraduate degree in Business Administration.

University	First year tuition (GHC)	2 nd – 4 th year tuition (GHC)	Total (GHC)
University of Ghana	1,723.00	3,816.00	5,539.00
University of Cape Coast	2,033.00	4,239.00	6,271.00
Kwame Nkrumah Uni. of Science and Technology	1,347.00	3,729.00	5,076.00
Valley View University	6,044.00	18,132.00	24,176.00
Central University College	4,340.00	13,020.00	17,360.00
Ghana Technology Uni. College	3,570.00	9,702.00	13,272.00

According to the table above, you will pay on average GHC 5,629 in tuition fees at a public university in Ghana (exclusive of food, transportation, accommodation, leisure and medical expenses), while fees at a private Ghanaian university, inclusive of other expenses, will cost you a total of GHC 18,450. If you don't start preparing for these expenses now, you may not be able to pay for education when the time comes. Even if you missed out on a head start in preparing for educational costs, investing consistently can change how long you need to keep investing to reach your goal. Investing consistently also helps reduce the burden of worrying about when best to invest.

The table below portrays how much you would need to invest monthly, the amount you have invested and the total interest earned on your investment in relation to your time horizon (the number of years you need to invest).

No. of yrs to university	Monthly investment (GHC)		Total investment (GHC)		Total interest earned (GHC)
	Public	Private	Public	Private	Public	Private
1	439.62	1,440.93	5,275.46	17,291.22	353.54	1,158.78
5	65.20	213.71	3,912.16	12,822.78	1,716.84	5,627.22
10	21.65	70.97	2,598.27	8,516.28	3,030.73	9,933.72
15	9.24	30.28	1,663.12	5,451.16	3,965.88	12,998.84
20	4.29	14.07	1,029.93	3,375.75	4,599.07	15,074.25

The key take away is that when you begin investing early, you invest less and earn more in interest. If you start late, you invest more and earn less interest. For example, if your child has one year left to attend university, you will need to invest GHC 439.62 or GHC 1,440.93 on a monthly basis to enrol him or her in a public or private university respectively, and you will earn interest of GHC 353.54 or GHC 1,158.78 respectively. On the other hand, if your child has 20 years until he or she attends university, you will need to invest only GHC 4.29 or GHC 14.07 monthly to enrol your child in a public or private university respectively and earn an interest of GHC 4,599.07 and GHC 15,074.25 respectively.

Investing in Databank EdIFund will help you to strategically and effectively plan towards financing educational needs, both current and long term. Its innovative two-tier structure offers you the complete package when saving for education: a short-term investment component (Tier 1) for current and recurring needs, and a long-term component (Tier 2) for future educational needs. Tier 2 also comes with an added in-built Life and Total Disability insurance cover to ensure continuity of your child's education in the unfortunate event of a tragedy.

Quality education should not be limited to those who are considered wealthy. The earlier you start investing towards education, the lighter the burden gets. Our key message to you: start investing TODAY and be CONSISTENT.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF DATABANK EDUCATIONAL INVESTMENT FUND LIMITED

Opinion

We have audited the Financial Statements of Databank Educational Investment Fund Limited, which comprise the Statement of Financial Position as at December 31, 2017, and the Statement of Comprehensive Income, Statement of Changes in Equity and Statement of Cash Flows for the year then ended, and notes to the Financial Statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies as set out on pages 18 to 25.

In our opinion, the accompanying Financial Statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Fund as at December 31, 2017 and its financial performance and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and in the manner required by the Companies Act, 1963 (Act 179), the Securities Industry Act, 2016 (Act 929), and the Unit Trusts and Mutual Funds Regulations, 2001 (L.I. 1695).

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Fund in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (IESBA Code) and we have fulfilled our ethical responsibilities in accordance with the IESBA Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the Financial Statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Other information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the Financial Statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the Financial Statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the Financial Statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work that we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, then we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Directors for the Financial Statements

The Directors are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these Financial Statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. The Directors are responsible for overseeing the Fund's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the Financial Statements

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Financial Statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the planning and performance of the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Financial Statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion.

Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Fund to cease to continue as a going concern.

We are required to communicate with the Board regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Report on other legal and regulatory requirements

The Companies Act, 1963 (Act 179) requires that in carrying out our audit work we consider and report on the following matters.

We confirm that:

- we have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of the audit;
- in our opinion proper books of account have been kept by the Fund, so far as appears from the examination of those books; and
- the Fund's Financial Statements are in agreement with the books of account.

1.1 Description of the Fund

Databank Educational Investment Fund Limited (EdIFund) is a licensed mutual fund. The Fund was incorporated under Ghanaian Law on March 9, 2012.

The principal activity of the Fund is to invest the monies of its members for the mutual benefit and to hold and arrange for the management of EdIFund Investment securities acquired with such monies.

The investment activities of the Fund are managed by Databank Asset Management Services Limited (the Fund Manager). The Custodian of the Fund is Stanbic Bank Ghana Limited.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 Statement of compliance

The Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB).

2.2 Basis of preparation

The Financial Statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for financial instruments that are measured at fair value, as explained in the accounting policies below. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for assets. The Financial Statements are presented in Ghana Cedi (GHC). The Fund presents its Statement of Financial Position in order of liquidity.

2.3 Basis of consolidation

The Fund is an investment entity and, as such, is not allowed to own controlling interest in other entities. Instead, financial interests are classified as available for sale and measured at fair value.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

3.2 Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Fund and the revenue can be reliably measured, regardless of when the payment is being made. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, taking into account contractually defined terms of payment and excluding taxes or duty.

3.2.1 Interest revenue and expense

Interest revenue and expense are recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income for all interest-bearing financial instruments using the effective interest method.

3.2.2 Dividend revenue and expense

Dividend revenue is recognised on the date on which the investments are quoted ex-dividend or, where no ex-dividend date is quoted, when the right of the Fund to receive the payment is established. Dividend revenue is presented gross of any non-recoverable withholding taxes, which are disclosed separately in the statement of comprehensive income. Dividend expense relating to equity securities sold short is recognised when the right of the shareholders to receive the payment is established.

3.2.3 Fees and commissions

Fees and commissions are recognised on an accrual basis. Fees and commission expenses are included in general and administrative expenses.

3.2.4 Net Gains or Loss on Financial Assets and Liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

This item includes changes in the fair value of financial assets and liabilities held for trading or designated upon recognition as at fair value through profit or loss and excludes interest and dividend income and expenses.

Unrealised gains and losses comprise changes in the fair value of financial instruments for the period and from reversal of prior period's unrealised gains and losses for financial instruments, which were realised in the reporting period.

Realised gains and losses on disposals of financial instruments classified as at fair value through profit or loss are calculated using the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method. They represent the difference between an instrument's initial carrying amount and disposal amount.

3.3 Taxation

Under the current legislation, mutual funds are not subject to taxes on income or capital gains, nor to any taxes on income distributions.

3.4 Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statements of the Fund, transactions in currencies other than the Fund's functional currency (foreign currencies) are recognised at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions. At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.
